

SCOPE OF PRACTICE GUIDELINES

DEPARTMENT OF PEDIATRICS

LAST UPDATED 28 JULY 2010

MEDICAL (M-S) AND PHYSICIAN ASSISTANT STUDENTS (PA-S)

1. All medical activities must be supervised by a Pediatric staff physician.
2. Medical-S and PA-S are expected to take histories, perform physical examinations and record the information on appropriate forms in medical records.
3. Medical-S and PA-S are expected to learn about the feeding development, care and anticipatory guidance of the normal newborn.
4. Medical-S and PA-S are expected to learn about the pathophysiology, differential diagnoses and management of common newborn and pediatric inpatient and outpatient medical problems.
5. Medical-S and PA-S are expected to attend Pediatric morning report.

Student

Date