

MILITARY HOSPITAL OUTREACH PROGRAM (MHOP)

The American Red Cross Fort Bragg, NC provides volunteer and material support to wounded, ill or injured service members, veterans and their family members who are receiving in-patient or out-patient care at WAMC.

Support for the recovery and rehabilitation of service members, as they prepare to return to duty or transition into civilian life, is a key initiative of the hospital program. In collaboration with military command, the Red Cross identifies sustainable programs to support military members, veterans, and their family members. In recent years, the WAMC ARC Office has provided volunteer services for WAMC, memory enhancing games and software for individual patients, electronic equipment for Occupational Therapy and Physical Therapy, and furniture for the Surgical Waiting Room (2N).

Programs offered by the WAMC ARC Office include:

- Hospitality/Patient Services
- Medical Evacuation Support
- Specific Patient Needs
 - Comfort Kits (personal hygiene items)
 - Clothing
 - Reading materials/Audio books/Play Aways
 - Movies
 - Calling Cards
 - Breakaway clothing (ideal for patients who have had surgery)
- Specific Facility Needs
- Information and Referral
- Volunteer Services

For more information on any of the MHOP programs, please contact the WAMC ARC Office at (910)907-7124.
