

INFECTION CONTROL

TEST

- 1. The phone number for infection control is:
 - a. 907-6BUG
 - b. 907-SOAP
 - c. 907-JERK
 - d. 643-WASH
- 2. You have sustained a needle stick injuries. What should you do?
 - a. Wash area with soap/water, report to occupational health located in the wellness clinic.
 - b. Wash area with soap/water, notify your supervisor, and report to the occupational health located in the wellness clinic.
 - c. Wash area with soap/water, report to the emergency department, complete paperwork, and notify your supervisor.
 - d. Wash area with soap/water, notify your supervisor, report to the emergency department, complete paperwork and report to occupational health.
- 3. All specimens may be transported to the laboratory by using the ABC cart system?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
- 4. Which is not correct when cleaning a blood spill:
 - a. Contain spill, wear PPE, wipe up the spill with paper towels, (throwaway in red bag) wash area with hospital approved disinfectant, remove PPE, wash hands
 - b. contain spill, notify housekeeping
 - c. contain spill, wipe the blood with a cloth towel, throw cloth towel in red bag, wash area with soap and water
- 5. The Occupational Exposure Control Plan is:
 - a. A complete list of employees by name and job description at Womack. This file is maintained in Civilian personnel office/military personnel office.
 - b. Policy that details measures at Womack and employees will take to decrease risk of blood borne pathogens exposure. Policy located in the infection control manual.
 - c. MEDCEN memo that outlines the responsibilities of the infection control office, infectious control committee and can be found on the Womack webpage.
- 6. Personal protective equipment PPE can include all of the following accept:
 - a. surgical scrubs, surgical head cover
 - b. lab coat
 - c. gloves, gowns
 - d. mask, goggles
- 7. The following items are considered RMW (Regulated Medical Waste) and are disposed of in a red biohazard bag.

- a. Gowns, gloves, masks used while caring for a patient on contact or droplet or airborne precautions for (MRSA, chickenpox, bacterial meningitis, tuberculosis)
 - b. Vaccines, specimen transport bags, unused red bags, bloody gauze
 - c. bloody sheets or towels, diapers, sanitary pads
- 8. Symptoms of pulmonary tuberculosis (TB) include:
- a. weight loss
 - b. productive cough more than three weeks
 - c. night sweats, fever, chills
 - d. all of the above
- 9. In the event a patient present to your clinic with symptoms of tuberculosis (TB) you should?
- a. Place a surgical mask on you on the patient
 - b. isolate patient (removed from waiting room)
 - c. notify infection control
 - d. all of the above
- 10. Which type of precautions requires all employees to treat all body fluids, secretions, and tissues of All patients as potentially infectious? (Warm wet and not yours)
- a. Contact
 - b. Droplet
 - c. Standard
 - d. Airborne
- 11. What is the best way to prevent the transmission of germs or disease?
- a. Stay away from sick people
 - b. wearing gloves
 - c. washing your hands
 - d. none of the above
- 12. Examples of tasks where gloves will be worn are:
- a. performing a finger/heel stick
 - b. changing a dressing/bandage
 - c. starting an IV
 - d. all of the above
- 13. Employees who wear glasses do not have to wear goggles/protection?
- a. True
 - b. False
- 14. Examples of illnesses that require airborne precaution are?
- a. Tuberculosis (TB)
 - b. Chickenpox (Varicella)
 - c. Disseminated Shingles
 - d. all the above
- 15. You may have drinks/food at the nurses' station as long as it is covered /wrapped?
- a. True
 - b. False